Estate Planning... It's What We Do!

Estate Planning should be at the top of that list. Why? Well, here are a few reasons:

1. So you can protect your assets and pass them on to your loved ones;
2. To avoid Probate and court involvement (time delays, court expenses and lack of privacy);
3. Incapacity - who will step in and help you if you aren't able to handle your affairs?;
4. To protect your beneficiaries from creditors, divorce and lawsuits;
5. So that you can have peace of mind knowing that your estate will be handled as you wish by the person who you choose to administer it.

Is a review of your Trust Necessary? How long has it been since you had your trust prepared? Here at the Deason Law Firm, we recommend a review every 3 years. It is important to sit down and review the following: 1. Complete review of the distribution of your assets under your plan; 2. Review to be sure all assets are properly titled to avoid Probate; 3. Review of overall planning to reduce taxes; 4. Review of your Health Care Power of Attorney and your Living Will.
